Fr. Paul's Ponderings

FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

DO THIS IN MY MEMORY!

We as a Catholic people of Christ have remembered since Christ's Resurrection, that He gives us His presence, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist.

Through the centuries Christ has carried us through all sorts of traumatic persecutions. In our historical human weaknesses, through many wars and attempts to kill the Church, we have survived with the awareness of Christ's presence among us. We have, even in our sinful frailty, kept the truth of our faith alive: Christ is present in the Holy Eucharist, in the proclamation of Sacred Scriptures, in our love for each other.

And in our love for each other we continually learn that Christ takes us, blesses us, breaks us and gives us to each other.

This happens in our families. And from our families, and our parish of families, we take Christ out to others.

Remember the thoughts of St. Augustine who said to his people: "believe what you see, become who you are...the Body of Christ!"

I am blessed to be your pastor! I see Christ so often in your incredibly wonderful relationships!

Peace!

Formation Essentials

Corpus Christi!—AMEM

It becomes clear that the manna which nourishes the Christian on the journey of faith and which enables hope to conquer cynicism and despair is the commitment to loving service. This is the heart of the teaching of Jesus and it is the deepest meaning of the Eucharistic manna. For the body and blood of the Lord in the Eucharist are a body broken for others and a blood poured out in sacrifice for others. To receive this sacrificial body and blood is to commit oneself unalterably to the loving service they signify. Thus, a mysterious and wonderful bonding occurs between Jesus and the Christian, not just from receiving the Eucharist, but also from living the love and unselfishness of Jesus. (Demetrius Dumm, OSB, Flowers in the Desert) The Church that celebrates Eucharist knows that her mission is to bring everyone and indeed everything to the Eucharistic table as a gift to be presented for transformation. This is the mission of the Church because “this being brought to the altar” is what has been revealed as the will of the Father for all (1 Timothy 2:5). Everything and everybody in the world is destined by grace for Eucharistic transformation. When the Father places His Son into the hands of the Church, He does so in order that the Church may do something with this gift; namely offer it as its own back to the Father. When the Word assumes our flesh—this is the form in which the Father gives His Son to us—He does so in order that he may offer it to the Father as what he is and always been. All of this is accomplished in the Holy Spirit. The broken bread you see before you, this wine poured out in your presence—this is nothing less than Christ himself among us come as our food, come among us in the form of the sacrifice that takes our sins away. The simple ritual words bluntly tell us: “The Body of Christ. The Blood of Christ.” We say, “Amen” to express our belief but also to ratify the exchange, to say that we agree to it, that we accept its consequences. We accept becoming ourselves the body of Christ, ourselves His blood. (Jeremy Driscoll, OSB, What Happens at Mass)
